

EDITORIAL

The peace: an ideal or Colombian reality

In the contextualize the social problems in Colombia, since last years is important think about diversity aspects, elements and themes in the academy as the peace, maybe, is a word very used for the citizenship, but is a word less analyzed in his etymologic and interpreted since only one meaning, conditions for the different perspectives people as passive o active subject, victim and jure-victim war's, according his good or bad experiences. The law is searching the convergence in the disciplines and it's obtain the interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary with the Philosophic, Sociology, Anthropology and Psychology, between others sciences, disciplines and knowledge's areas, but in this document only it's will strength interpretation's ius-philosophy the peace word.

The peace word is originated the Latin pax and his mean is stability and serenity. Also, it's produced harmony, justice and equality, between the people or society and it's will see the imperturbability and peace spirit man', this concept was given for the epicures and stoicism; they thought is necessary for arrived to the interior peace and the equilibrium with the physic. However, authors others and schools has analyzed this word, a agreement between both parts or must, promise for less the aggression or ill-feeling the war, with the purpose of care the rights and his freedom. Moreover, the approach to the democracy how government' ideal system, where the citizens or people cash to his represents and the government can to perform with promise in the electoral company. But, this thinking has questions various because the peace is seeing as a way to disappear the war. This mean the acknowledgment the difference and heterogeneity, since perspectives various and outward. Also, thought about the thesis be will the peace and the war the antithesis. Nevertheless, Hanna Arendt (2007) discusses the important relation between peace and war.

In this ideas order, the dialogue is a tool, way to the peace because it's discussion and thinking's, the inventions and development, for the diversity interpretations and circumstances own subject. The peace is a historic process and a continuous change, but the way to get the light is dark and back. Is for that, the prayer following the humans condition is live the life as be only, it's acknowledge to the others and the interaction with other persons o people and the peace as a right and obligation for all.

Sandra Viviana Diaz Rincon

Pleaded, it Philosophizes, Mg(c) in Criminal law, Ex-Becaria of the Administrative Department of Science and the Technology Colciencias.
Teacher-investigator, Co-editor Revista Justicia
of the University Simon Bolivar
Barranquilla-Cúcuta-Colombia